PREFACE

SINCE the publication of the Tenth Catalogue of Psi Upsilon, in 1888, four Chapters and nearly three thousand members have been added to the rolls of the Fraternity. The present Catalogue, omitting biographical matter, records the names, chapters, classes, symbols, and degrees of members, the occupations and addresses of the living and the dates of death of the deceased. Where members have belonged to more than one chapter during their undergraduate period, cross references are made in the body of the book, but in the indexes only the chapter of latest membership is indicated. Those who were never attached to the institution at which they attained chapter membership are separated from the class lists by a dash. The asterisk denotes death. Discarded names are enclosed in brackets. Initial letters not followed by periods are not abbreviations.

Information for the Catalogue was derived in the first instance from the Chapters. Whenever such information was incomplete, or apparently uncertain, efforts were made to secure correct information by correspondence with the members themselves, or with members of their families, classmates, college registrars, friends or business associates, or by reference to the latest college catalogues. After the Chapter lists were in galley-proof they were submitted to the chapters for correction, and again in page-proof, and were subsequently read by graduate members of the several chapters before printing. In all cases the last known address of living members is given. Where differences appear between the Chapter lists and the indexes, the indexes contain the later information. Changes and corrections have been noted in the Appendix down to March 24, 1902. Several names omitted from the preceding Catalogue have been included in the present edition. The names of members initiated since June, 1901, are contained in the Appendix but not in the indexes.

Within the past four years Samuel Goodale and Sterling Goodale Hadley, two of the seven Founders of Psi Upsilon, have passed away. It is a matter of exceptional interest that two of the Founders still survive, and to them this book is dedicated with grateful and reverent regard.
